man and charity were very closely allied last evening, when the W. C. T. U. gave a New England dinner at Haalelea Lawn for those who most willingly paid the small sum required of them at the gate. The lawn and front veranda of the house were prettily decorated for the occasion. A large number of people were present. Young ladies attired in Martha Washington costumes waited gracefully on the tables. The W. C. T. U. and Y. W. C. T. U. realized a handsome sum from the dinner. Mrs. E. W.
